Monthly Newsletter on Developments of the Women's Revolution and Agendas in North and East Syria

September 2022

The last month has shown once again that in the struggle that women in North and East Syria are waging for their freedom, success and pain go side by side. Yezidi women were rescued by YPJ fighters in an operation against ISIS, women from Rojava participated in the 3rd World Women Conference in Tunisia and made contacts for a common struggle, life, discussions and actions continued. There were many successes, but we witnessed again that our struggle for freedom is not an easy one and that women are ready to give their lives for it.
